5.04.010 DEFINITIONS

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Business means those activities or acts engaged in or caused to be engaged in, with the object of gain, benefit or advantage, or consideration either directly or indirectly; and shall include but not be limited to any trade, calling, profession, occupation or performance of services whether engaged in for profit or not for profit. "Business" shall also include storage lots, mobile retail sales, rentals of one or more real properties, on-line sales from a location in the town, game or amusement, and other similar activities.

Casual activity means a transaction of an isolated nature made by a person who neither represents himself to be nor is engaged in a business for which a license is required. The sale, rental, license for use, or lease transaction concerning real property is not a casual activity.

Conduct means to commence, manage, own, solicit, canvass, practice, transact, engage in or carry on.

Consideration means payment, reward or anything regarded as a return given or suffered by one for the act or promise of another.

License means a business license required by this chapter.

Mobile retail sales means conducting the business of collection, sale, solicitation or taking of orders for future deliveries of goods, wares, or merchandise, including but not limited to, intangibles, prepackaged or edible foods, recyclables, junk, or personal property of any nature whatsoever by foot, cart, wagon, automobile or any other type of conveyance from place-to-place, house-to-house, street-to-street, business-to-business or on property adjacent to a street but not at a fixed location.

Person means a corporation, firm, partnership, association, organization and any other group acting as a unit, as well as an individual. "Person" does not include an employee of a person who has a business license to conduct a business when that employee is acting within the scope of his employment.

Separate business location means a different physical address or branch location of the same business or franchise. A single business occupying more than one suite in the same building, does not constitute a separate business location.
