6. REPORTS / RECOGNITIONS:

A. Town Manager Reports.

Town Manager Rivera gives thank to Community Services Director, Christine Duarte, for cleaning up the park last week and comments how nicely it was decorated. Gives thanks to Public Works Director, Josh Derhammer, for installing the cameras at the park. Thanks Councilmember Black for suggesting swings for the park, waiting on a quote for those. Reports on the Sidewalks Restoration proposed project, Veterans Park Wall project and Hostetler Swimming Pool Fence project.

B. Mayor/Council Reports.

Vice Mayor Moat gives thanks to Public Works Director, Josh Derhammer, for the strip paving on Woodrow Avenue.

Councilmember Reiman comments on seeing kids playing on the new playground and the volleyball court, enjoying the new facilities. Councilmember Reiman states that it is nice to see people benefiting from this project.

Mayor Medina comments on a billboard he has seen on his way to the valley at about Peralta Road, which reads something like “Resolution....sucks”. He called Resolution to see what this could be about. He was told that an “anti-mining” group has put up three of these billboards. Mayor Medina comments that Arizona is known for its mining and we do not need that kind of advertisement.

7. CALL TO THE PUBLIC:

Mr. Jesse Bryant, Globe resident, updates Council on a special guest, Lt. Larry Perrino, who will be appearing for the Independence Day Celebration. He will provide more details in the near future.

Mr. Tim Gonzales, Claypool resident, Member of the Gila County Ministerial Association, gives a brief overview of what they are planning for the Independence Day Celebration.

Mrs. Evelyn Vargas, Miami resident, reviews and gives a brief update on what projects HOME (Hearts of Miami Engaged) have done in the Town of Miami, as well as, what they are currently working on.

Mr. Lobb Instagon, Miami Arts Commission, comments on being excited for the upcoming Miami Loco Festival. This is his first year doing it without Michael Twenty-Three. Mr. Instagon comments on some of the festivities planned for this event.

Mr. Gil Madrid, Miami resident, gives an update on the "M" Hill trail and comments briefly on the battle it has been to get the legal description for the property.

8. UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

9. NEW BUSINESS:

A. Information, discussion and possible action: Possible approval of the 2024 Independence Day Celebration as follows:

- 1) approval of use of Miami Veterans Park, including restrooms, snack bar, electric and water on Thursday, July 4, 2024 7:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.;
- 2) approval of Independence Day Parade with full street closure of Sullivan Street between Reppy and Miami Avenue.
